1. We will send you a letter acknowledging your complaint. We will let you know the name of the person who will be dealing with your complaint. You can expect to receive our letter within 7 days of us receiving your complaint.

2. We will record your complaint in our central register within a day of having received it.

3. If necessary we will ask you to confirm or explain in more details set out in your original letter. If required we will acknowledge your reply to our letter and confirm what will happen next. You can expect to receive our acknowledgement letter within 7 days of your reply.

4. We will then start to investigate your complaint. This will normally involve the following steps;

We may ask the member of staff who dealt with you to reply to your complaint within 5 days of our request. We will then examine the member of staff's reply and the information you have provided for us. If necessary we may ask you to speak to them. This will take up to 4 days from receiving their reply.

5. If necessary, the manager dealing with the complaint will then invite you to meet him/her to discuss and hopefully resolve your complaint. She/he will do this within 5 days of the end of our investigation.

6. Within 2 days of the meeting we will write to you to confirm what took place and any solutions s/he has agreed with you.

If you do not want a meeting or it is not possible, we will send you a detailed reply to your complaint. This will include his/her suggestions for resolving the matter. She/he will do this within 5 days of completing his/her investigation.

8. We will let you know of the outcome of this review within 5 days of the end of the review. We will write to you confirming our final position on your complaint and explaining our reasons. If you are still not satisfied, you can contact the Employment Agencies Standards Office at the Department of Trade and Industry or the REC, the industry trade association, of which we are a member by writing to the Professional Standards Manager, REC, 36-38 Mortimer Street, London W1W 7RG.
